St. Luke news—

A very pleasing crowd of members and friends attended the regular preaching services and family day observance at the St. Luke Baptist Church Sunday June 15 at 11:00 o'clock. Rev. J. E. McLaughlin, pastor was in charge. Rev. Alvin Jones along with Rev. Fletcher Abrams, who is from N. Y. was guest on the Rostrum. The Adult Choir gave the vocal music which was inspiring. Rev. McLaughlin spoke from the subject The Need For Family Worship. He made it quite interesting, that when a family worship together they will stay together. The offering was good. After the close of the A.M. services the families assembled in the dining hall to enjoy the covered dish meal which was enjoyed.

At 3:00 p.m. there was a large assembly of people for the ordination services for the Rev. Leonard L. Yuille. The Adult Choir gave the music.

Rev. J. E. McLaughlin, pastor gave the ordaining message 2 Timothy 4:1-2. Subject "Preach the Word". Deacon S. D. Hunter read the scripture suited to the occasion. Rev. S. C. Terry examined the candidate. Ordaining prayer-Rev. J. Miller, charge to the church-Rev. Fletcher Abrams, presenting the Bible for the church-Rev. Mc Laughlin, presenting the certificate-Rev. McLaughlin, offering-Deacon James Tweedy and Deacon Bryant.

Rev. Yuille then gave strong words relative to his call and determination to preach the Gospel Thus the glorious occasion was ended and the members and relatives served an evening meal to the bus load of people who came from Amherst to the occasion.

Well, a very special and happy event has rolled around again for Mrs. Eva M. Clark, when on June 14 her daughters, Mrs. Inez Patrick and Mrs. Ruth Hamlette celebrated by giving her a birthday dinner out in the yard under the large trees at Mrs. Hamlette and her husband's home. Many of Mrs. Clark's children were present and a large number of other relatives and friends were present and enjoyed the occasion so very much.

Mrs. Clark received many useful gifts and money. She was so greatful for it all and to be alive, because some of the time she has been quite ill.

Next Sunday, June 22, we will have our first services in our new church building on Route 727 beyond the new high school. Central air and padded pews along with less crowded conditions will add much to a more worshipful atmosphere.

Our pastor, Ron Gallagher, has been bringing some wonderful messages on what the Bible has to say concerning Christian homes. We appreciate the talent he has in teaching Gods Word.

Last Sunday, a special ordination service was held for our youth pastor, Jim Bitner. Rev. Randy Hobbs from Burlington, N. C. gave the charge to the candidates and Rev. Ron. Gallagher gave the charge to the church.

After the ordination service a reception was given in the fellowship hall in Jim's honor.

Among those present were Jim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bitner of Emporium, Pennsylvania and Neal and Marjorie Hagen also of Pennsylvania. Jim and Sue have one daughter, Sherri. We wish to congratulate Jim on his ordination into the ministry.

Also congratulations are in order for the Junior High Word of Life softball team, who traveled to Charlottesville on Saturday for a softball marathon.

They came in second place, just one point short of tying with the first place winners.

In addition to bringing home two trophies, one for second place and one for their coach, Sue Bitner, for good sportsmanship, each of the following girls received a special award certificate.

Real Estate Tips

by Kathy Meadows

OPEN LISTING: An owner can give an open listing to any number of brokers at the same time, and the owner can still find a buyer himself and avoid a commission. This gives the owner the greatest freedom of any listing form, but there is little incentive for the broker to expend time and money showing the property as he has little control over who will be compensated if the property is sold. The broker's only protection is that, if he does find a buyer at the listing price and terms, he is entitled to a commission. This reluctance to develop a sales effort usually means few, if any, offers will be received and may result in no sale or a sale below market price. Yet, if a broker does find a buyer, the commission charges may be the same as with any exclusive right to sell.

EXCLUSIVE RIGHT-TO-SELL: No matter who sells the property during the listing period, the listing broker is entitled to a commission. The primary advantage to the broker is that the money and effort he expends on advertising and showing the property will be to his benefit. The advantage to the owner is that the broker will usually put more effort into selling a property on which he holds an exclusive right to sell than one for which he has only an open listing.

A "MUPTIPLE LISTING" is an exclusive right-to-sell listing taken by a broker who places it into a multiple listing service (MLS) organization. Multiple listing organizations enable brokers in a given geographical area to exchange information on listings. The purpose is to inform other brokers and their clients of listings held by each member, broadening the market exposure for a given property. Member brokers are permitted to show each others' properties to their clients and, if a sale results, the commission is divided between the broker finding the buyer and the broker retaining the MLS listing, less a small deduction for the cost of operating the multiple listing service.

A property listed with a broker who is a multiple listing service member receives the advantage of greater sales exposure, which, in turn means a better price and a quicker sale. For the buyer, it means learning about what is for sale at many offices without having to visit each individually. For the salesman and broker, it means that, if his own office does not have a suitable property for a buyer, the opportunity to make a sale is not lost, because the buyer can be shown listings of other brokers.

Let's discuss your home buying or selling plans. Call me at 352-5003 or 237-2951 or stop by Century 21 Gail Boswell and Associates at 2101 Wards Road, Lynchburg, Virginia 24502. I am looking forward to meeting you and answering your personal real estate questions.
